Tiverton & the Exe Valley

Countryside walks, wildlife and traditional thatched villages

A town full of charm with a treasure trove of history and heritage just waiting to be explored.

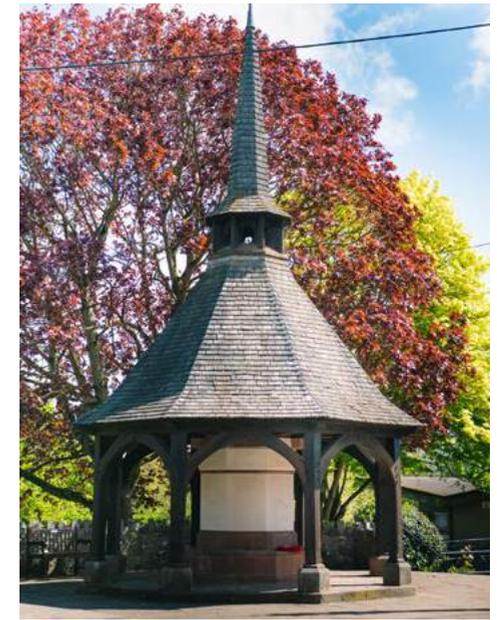

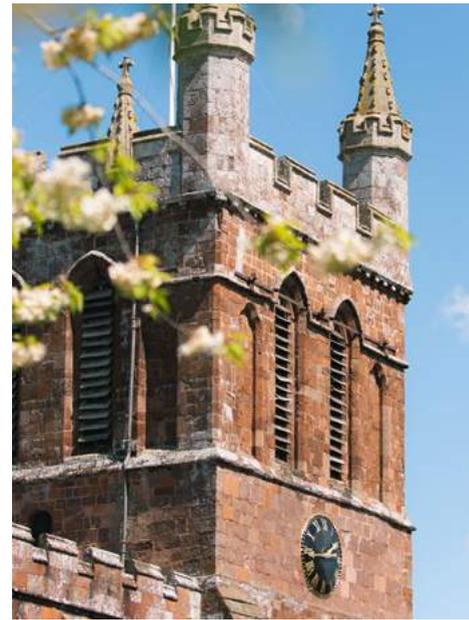

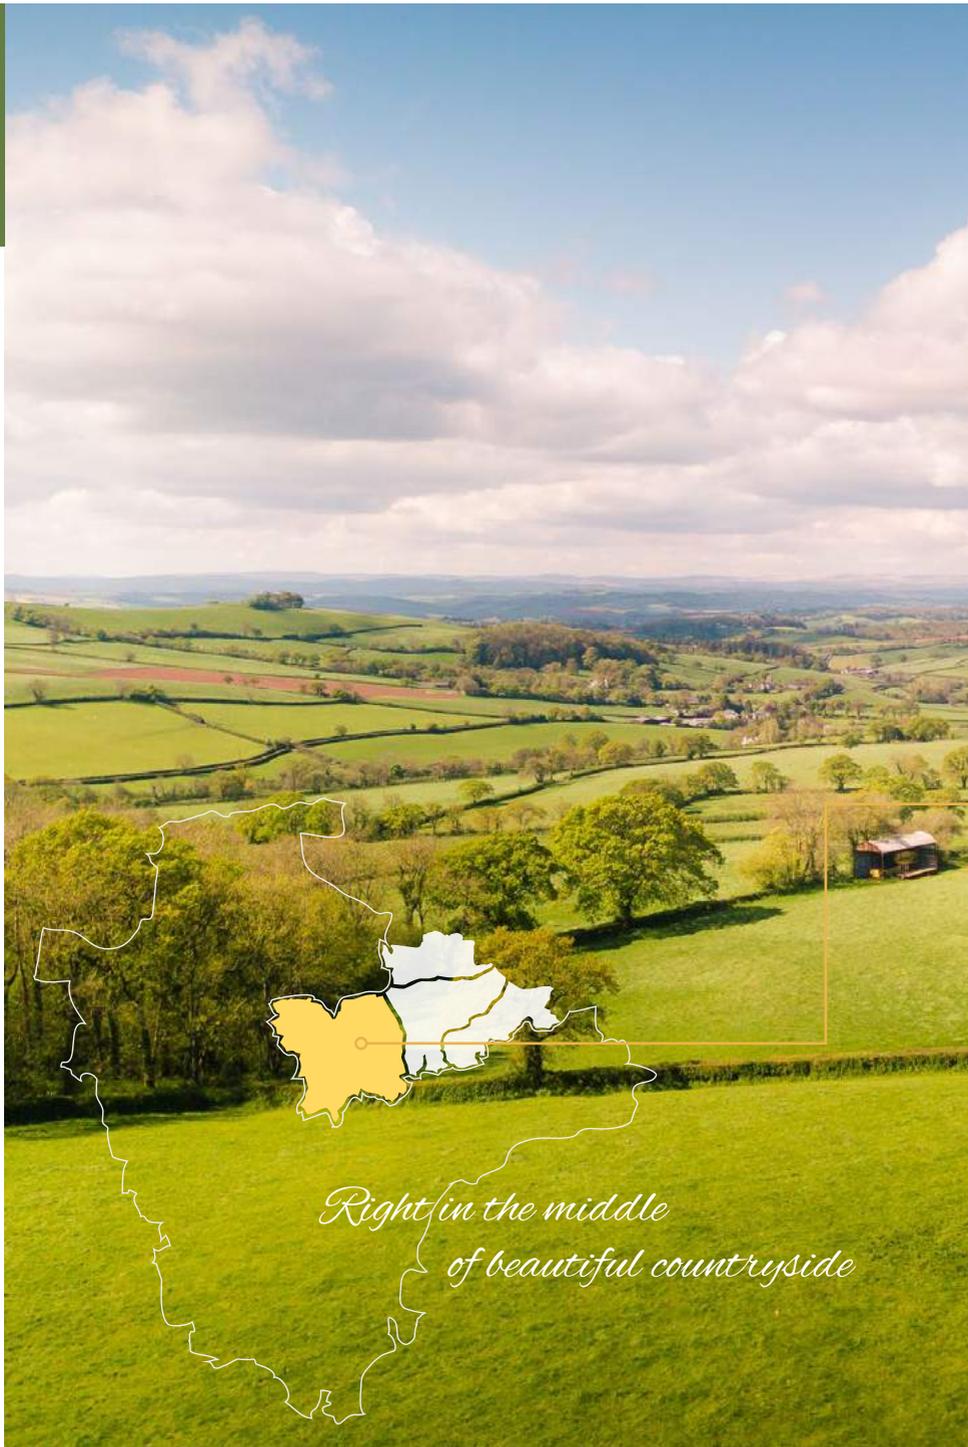

Tiverton's central location makes it an ideal base for exploring Devon and the place to escape for a rural holiday. Surrounded by countryside walks, wildlife and traditional thatched villages such as Bickleigh and Thorverton dotted along the picturesque Exe Valley.

Stroll along the Grand Western Canal, a popular beauty spot perfect for walking or cycling stretching for 11 miles. Quench your thirst en route in the attractive villages of Halberton and Sampford Peverell. There's lots of wildlife to spot or take a leisurely trip on one of the country's last horse-drawn barges.

Visit Tiverton Castle, a royal fortress, or the 11th century moated Bickleigh Castle. Discover the town's historical buildings following a heritage trail. National Trust's Knightshayes Court, a fine example of Gothic Revival, overlooks the town. Glimpse further into the region's past by heading to the award-winning Museum of Mid-Devon Life, full of quirky exhibits.

Spend an afternoon exploring interesting independent shops and the historic Pannier Market where you can pick up unique gifts.

Crediton & the Creedy Valley

A lively market town in the heart of Devon with a rich history and vibrant arts scene.

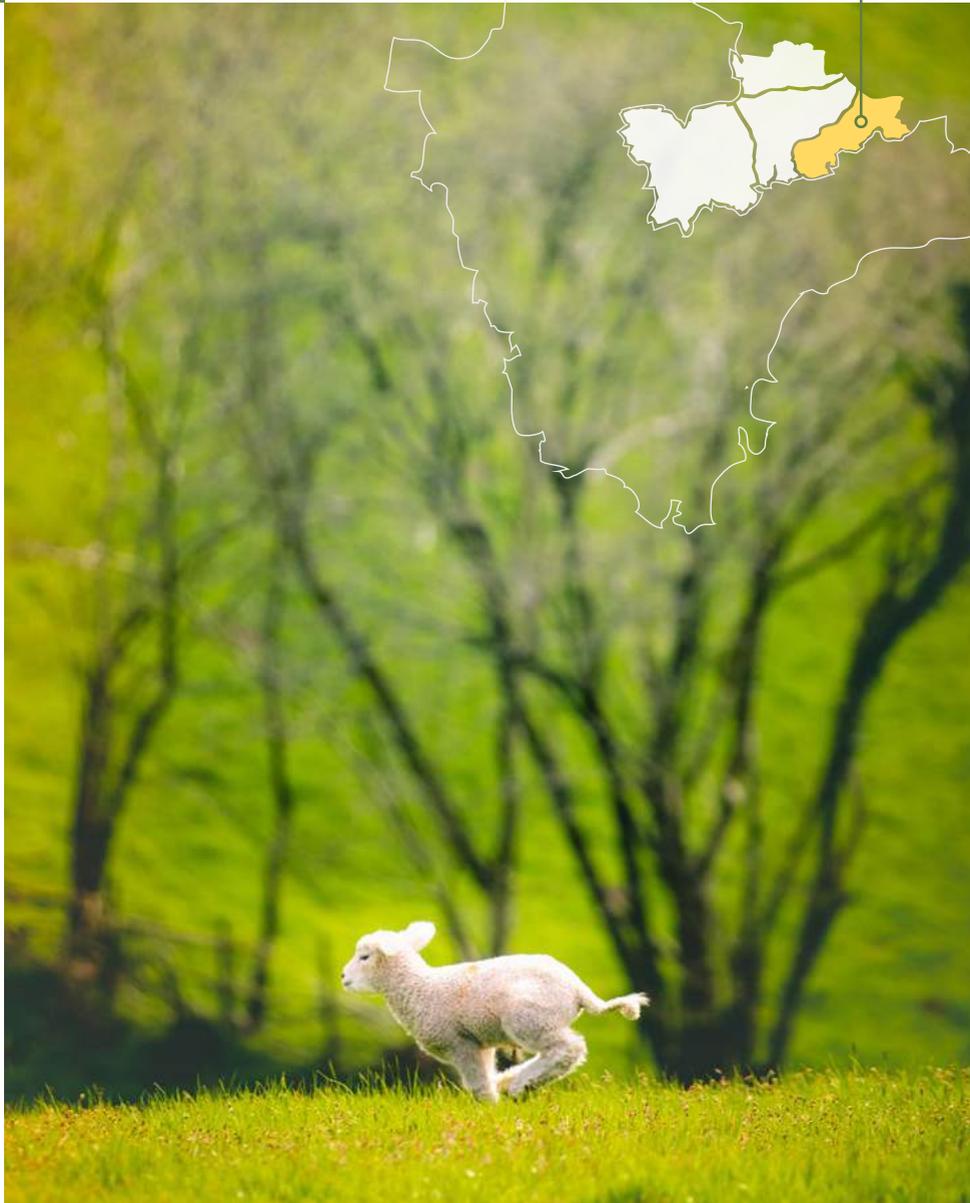

Crediton has a unique spiritual heritage as the birth place of St Boniface and home to the National Shrine of St Boniface as well as the grand Parish Church of the Holy Cross, which stands on the site of Devon's first Saxon cathedral.

Many independent retailers and a thriving farmers' market, make Crediton an ideal place to escape the monotony of the high street, buy unique gifts and sample locally sourced food and drink.

This historic market town is a convenient place to stay if you're planning trips to Dartmoor and Exmoor. Sitting in the narrow vale of the River Creedy, it's only seven miles from Exeter and in the middle of beautiful countryside.

Crediton offers a main line rail service and is served by all trains on the Barnstaple to Exeter line. If you're taking a trip on the scenic Tarka line, stop off at Eggesford Station to explore the beauty of Eggesford forest, a large and enchanting forest with a network of trails, perfect for a family day out or walking the dog.

Cullompton & the Culm Valley

Honeycombed with footpaths, bridleways and cycle trails

A beautiful countryside town packed with heritage.

Set within the tranquil Culm Valley, close to Exeter and surrounded by countryside, Cullompton is the ideal holiday location to escape into peaceful surroundings, get back to nature and explore the wonderful rural setting and wildlife of Mid Devon.

Delicious local goods can be purchased from friendly knowledgeable producers at the town's award-winning farmers' market.

Cullompton is also the gateway to the Culm Valley and Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, including stunning views from the Elizabethan Culmstock Beacon. Honeycombed with footpaths, bridleways and cycle trails, this is wonderful countryside to explore at your leisure.

Follow a Heritage Trail or guided town walk to discover the town's role in the cloth trade including the fine 15th century St Andrew's Church, the beautifully restored Tudor town house The Walronds, almshouse and the old Bull Ring. The Leat Walk offers you peaceful parkland and National Trust's Killerton House, with its beautiful gardens, is just a few miles away. Links to the wool trade continue in Uffculme where you will find more evidence of the area's fascinating heritage at Coldharbour Mill.

Bampton & the Exmoor Fringe

The wilderness of Exmoor is just a stone's throw away

Historic charter town nestled on the edge of Exmoor National Park with a bustling centre.

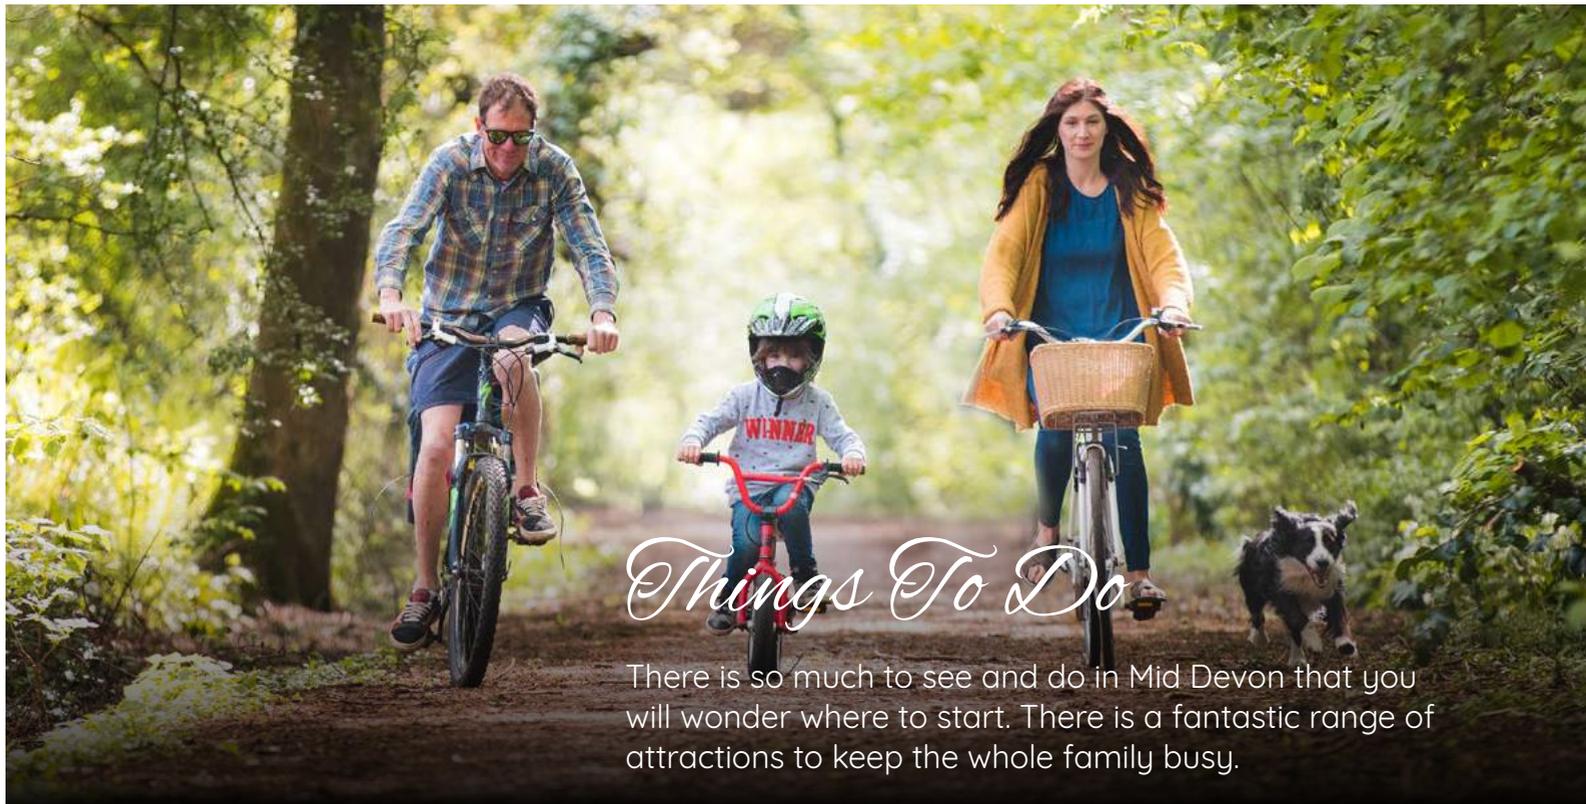

St Michael and All Angels Church houses the Heritage & Visitor Centre featuring fascinating local artefacts and information about the town's rich heritage. The 12th century church contains many interesting features and curiosities. Find out more about the town and its eclectic stories by joining a guided Town Trail.

There is an abundance of quirky independent retailers, as well as a traditional pharmacy, greengrocer and butcher. Foodies will be satisfied with more than one award-winning pub to choose from.

Bampton's Norman motte is one of the best preserved in Devon and offers wonderful views. The Exe Valley Way runs through the town and lots of footpaths meander through the surrounding woodland. The wilderness of Exmoor, its famous ponies, and the real-life settings of Lorna Doone, is just a stone's throw away. Cyclists can challenge themselves on routes around the winding country roads and steep climbs of Devon's typical rolling hills.

Every October the town holds the ancient Bampton Charter Fair which is over 750 years old - lively fun and entertainment for all ages.

Things To Do

There is so much to see and do in Mid Devon that you will wonder where to start. There is a fantastic range of attractions to keep the whole family busy.

There are loads of opportunities for the family to let off steam and enjoy fun activities both in and outdoors. Family friendly attractions include theme parks, adventure parks, water activities and soft play. Come rain or shine, there is plenty to keep the kids occupied.

Explore the rich heritage of Mid Devon by visiting museums, castles, and historic houses. The area was very involved in the textile trade, especially lucrative woollen cloth in the 1600s and 1700s, which is reflected in some of the wonderful architecture of the towns, churches and country houses of Mid Devon.

With idyllic rolling hills and valleys, there are plenty of opportunities to enjoy the great outdoors. Many of the paths and country lanes are very quiet and you may well spot a wide variety of wildlife.

Don't forget to enjoy the local food and drink while you are here, either buying ingredients from the many markets and farm shops, or enjoying being looked after in the wide variety of cafés, pubs and restaurants.

There is so much to enjoy while you are here!

Shopping

If you're looking for a break from city high streets and crowded malls, shopping in Mid Devon is a breath of fresh air. Walking the pavements in our towns you will find quirky independents and boutiques to explore, where you're sure to find that perfect gift or souvenir of your stay.

Browse at leisure through designer clothing. Discover handmade crafts and locally produced jewellery that you won't find anywhere else. Take a seat in an independent bookshop to choose your next great read. Tiverton's historic Pannier Market offers a unique shopping experience for visitors with local artisan produce and handcrafted goods.

Our galleries showcase local artists and creators while the antiques shops you will find here give you the chance to discover something unusual.

Foodies will find plenty of tasty fare to enjoy. With thriving farmers' markets in Crediton and Cullompton, farm shops dotted through the region, regular streetfood events in Tiverton and award-winning restaurants in Bampton, local produce is easy to find. Take home local meats and cheeses, sample fish and seafood brought fresh from the coast or satisfy your sweet tooth with something a bit more indulgent. Visit a vineyard or brewery for a tour and a taster of local wines, beers and ciders.

If you're craving high street brands and the bustle of the city then head to Exeter, in easy reach by car or keep it green with public transport.
