

Looking for your next adventure?
Somewhere with room to breathe to escape the day to day and unwind?

What better place than in the heart of Devon's countryside?

Explore rolling hills, meandering river valleys, and secluded woodland. Discover heritage in abundance, browse our unique, independent shops and savour award-winning local produce in our farm shops and eateries. Enjoy a wide variety of attractions, country gardens and local arts and culture.

Prefer a more active pace? Don't let the tranquillity fool you! Pull on your walking boots or jump on your bike and get out on the many trails, footpaths and cycle routes waiting for you to take them on. Hire a boat and paddle your way through our waterways or get above it all in a hot air balloon for spectacular views across beautiful farmland.

It's easy to get out and about from Mid Devon.
If you want to feel the sand on your toes and enjoy an ice cream looking out to sea, the beaches of the north and south coasts are in easy reach. Want something more rugged?
Lose yourself in the wilderness of Dartmoor or Exmoor, both just a stone's throw away.

Or... just sit back in the midst of our beautiful countryside, relax and take it all in.

Whatever you choose to do here, Visit Mid Devon.

Tiverton & the Exe Valley

A town full of charm with a treasure trove of history and heritage just waiting to be explored.

Tiverton's central location makes it an ideal base for exploring Devon and the place to escape to for a rural holiday. Surrounded by countryside walks and traditional thatched villages like Bickleigh and Thorverton dotted along the picturesque Exe Valley.

Stroll along the Grand Western Canal which stretches for 11 miles. There's lots of wildlife to look out for in this popular beauty spot perfect for walking or cycling. Quench your thirst en route in the attractive villages of Halberton and Sampford Peverell.

Visit Tiverton Castle, a royal fortress set in beautiful walled gardens. Discover the town's historical buildings following a heritage trail. National Trust's Knightshayes Court, a fine example of Gothic Revival, overlooks the town. Glimpse further into the region's past by heading to the award-winning Museum of Mid Devon Life, full of quirky exhibits.

Spend an afternoon exploring interesting independent shops and the historic Pannier Market where you can pick up unique gifts.

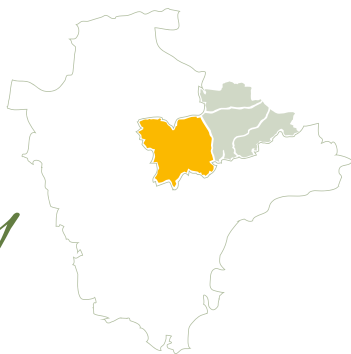

An ideal base for exploring Devon

Crediton & the Creedy Valley

A lively market town in the heart of Devon with a rich history.

Crediton has a unique spiritual heritage as birth place of St Boniface and home to the National Shrine of Saint Boniface as well as the grand Parish Church of the Holy Cross, which stands on the site of Devon's first Saxon cathedral.

Many independent retailers and a thriving farmers' market, make Crediton an ideal place to escape the monotony of the high street, buy unique gifts and sample locally sourced food and drink.

This historic market town is a convenient place to stay if you're planning trips to Dartmoor and Exmoor. Sitting in the narrow vale of the River Creedy, it's only seven miles from Exeter and in the middle of an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

If you're taking a trip on the scenic Tarka railway line stop off at Eggesford Station to explore the beauty of Eggesford forest, a large and enchanting forest with a network of trails, perfect for a family day out or walking the dog.

Cullompton & the Culm Valley

A beautiful countryside town packed with heritage.

Set within the tranquil Culm Valley, close to Exeter and surrounded by countryside, Cullompton is the ideal holiday location to escape into peaceful surroundings, get back to nature and explore the wonderful rural setting of Mid Devon.

Delicious local goods can be purchased from friendly knowledgeable producers at the town's award-winning farmers' market.

Cullompton is also the gateway to the Culm Valley and Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, including stunning views from the Elizabethan Culmstock Beacon. Honeycombed with footpaths, bridleways, and cycle trails, this is wonderful countryside to explore at your leisure. Don't forget to stop in a traditional country pub in one of the Culm Valley's quaint villages, for local ales and delicious food in fabulous settings.

Follow a Heritage Trail to discover the town's role in the cloth trade including the fine 15th century St Andrew's Church, almshouses, the old Bull Ring and the Leat Walk, offering you peaceful parkland. Links to the wool trade continue in Uffculme where you will find more evidence of the area's fascinating heritage at Coldharbour Mill.

CULLOMPTON

BAMPTON

Bampton & the Exmoor Fringe

Historic charter town nestled on the edge of Exmoor National Park with a bustling centre.

St Michael and All Angels Church houses the Bampton Heritage & Visitor Centre featuring fascinating local artefacts and information about the town's rich heritage. The 12th century church contains many interesting features and curiosities. Find out more about the town and its eclectic stories by joining a guided Town Trail.

There are an abundance of quirky independent retailers, as well as a traditional pharmacy, greengrocers and butchers. Foodies will be well satisfied with more than one award-winning eatery to choose from.

Bampton's Norman motte is one of the best preserved in Devon and offers wonderful views. The Exe Valley Way runs through the town and lots of footpaths meander through the surrounding woodland. The wilderness of Exmoor, its famous ponies, and the real-life locations of Lorna Doone, is just a stone's throw away. Cyclists can challenge themselves on routes around the winding country roads and steep climbs of Devon's typical rolling hills.

Every October the town holds the ancient Bampton Charter Fair which is over 750 years old - lively fun and entertainment for all ages.

The wilderness of Exmoor, its famous ponies, and the real-life locations of Lorna Doone, is just a stone's throw away.

Mid Devon...for the family

Come rain or shine Mid Devon is the place to come for a family holiday. There's so much to enjoy, discover and explore!

Take the stress out of planning and pick and choose from our suggested itinerary, leaving more time for making family memories.

Day 1: Cullampton and the Culm Valley

Why not spend your first morning at The Bear Trail and Bear Town. No one can resist the muddiest family assault course and indoor imaginative play whatever your age or ability. Head to Uffculme for a tour of Coldharbour Mill and experience the sights and sounds of the industrial revolution. Then take an evening stroll through the CCA fields and play area, catching the sunset over St. Andrews Church.

Day 2: Crediton and the Creedy Valley

Start your adventure at The Waie Inn, a family friendly centre packed with activities. Then stop off in Crediton town centre for its quaint shops and delicious bakeries. Take your holiday to another world at Planet Play, indoor soft play built for fun, excitement and adventure.

Day 3: Tiverton and the Exe Valley

Enjoy an ice cream at the Canal Tea Rooms and head up to the Grand Western Canal Country Park where one of the country's last working horse drawn barges awaits. Hop on your bikes and ride the full 11 miles or for a short walk enjoy the Swan's Neck circular, stopping for refreshments at Halberton Court Farm Shop. Spend the afternoon discovering Mid Devon's heritage in the family friendly Tiverton Museum of Mid Devon Life and the historic Tiverton Castle.

Day 4: Bampton and the Exmoor Fringe

Discover the story of this scenic town steeped in history with a visit to the Bampton Heritage and Visitor Centre in the picturesque St Michael and All Angels Church. Browse the town's quirky independent shops before heading to one of its eateries. Walk up the Motte, the site of a Norman 'Bailey' castle, for wonderful views and a brilliant playground to scramble around. Bampton is only a short journey to the wilderness of Exmoor. Take a drive over rugged moorland looking out for the famous Exmoor ponies and stop for a stroll (and a photo op!).

Visit our town centres and farm shops

www.visitmiddevon.co.uk

Shopping in Mid Devon is a breath of fresh air offering a break from the high street experience.

Explore boutiques and gift shops in all our main towns. Hunt for an unusual bargain in antiques shops and discover handmade crafts. Our markets offer a unique shopping experience where you'll find local artisan produce and gifts. Discover local artists and makers showcased in our galleries.

Take a stroll along Lower Gold Street in Tiverton, hailed as 'the Trendiest Street in Devon', to discover something different in these quirky independents. Browse for clothing from artisan brands in Mademoiselle Mojo and shop for that perfect gift in Lantic Gallery. Head to Liznojan Books and enjoy your next favourite read with a cake at Liznojan Coffee, pamper yourself at Mojo's Hair & Beauty, before stopping for a bite to eat in The Flying Pickle. Head back in the evening for a French bistro experience at Frou Frou.

Boutique 37

Boutique 37 Antiques is situated in the town centre with free on street parking outside the shop. The two rooms cover many areas, including furniture, silver, art, porcelain, copper and metalwork, together with objet d'art.

The shop has also been featured on Antiques Road Trip.

Visit Mid Devon... for your foodie fix

Local produce isn't hard to find in Mid Devon so it's the perfect place to spend a weekend exciting your taste buds!

Self-catering? Head to one of the region's excellent farm shops or spend a morning wandering around the fabulous Farmers' Markets in Cullompton, Crediton and Tiverton. Learn about our wonderful local producers and shop like a local. Pick up free range organic meat, fresh eggs, luxury cheeses, fresh breads and cakes, delicious juices, ciders and spirits and much more. Head back to your accommodation to cook up a feast with your wares.

Spend a few hours in beautiful surroundings learning more about your favourite tippie with a tour at Wellhayes Vineyard or Hanlon's Brewery. Have an evening to remember in The Sip Shed's Tasting Room, tasting and making a carefully curated selection of spirits and cocktails. Treat yourself to excellence during your stay by booking into one of Mid Devon's award winning eateries for a fine dining experience or a homely pub meal.

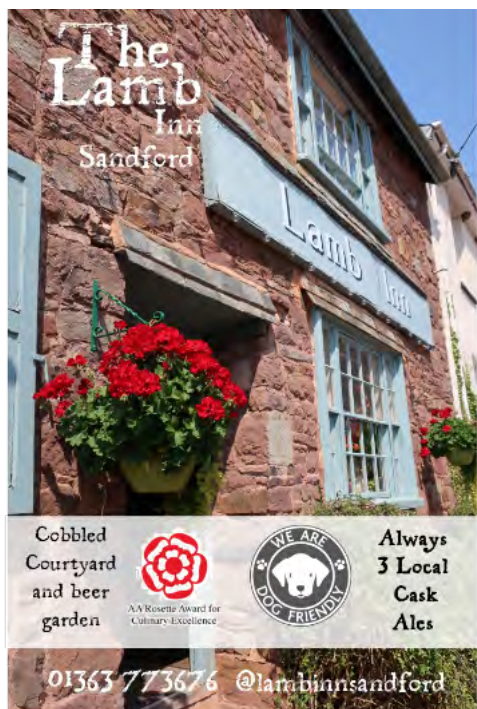

Food & Drink

Famous for its fresh local produce, farmers' markets and stunning quality of taste, Mid Devon is a food-lovers heaven.

From cosy tea rooms to fine dining, Mid Devon has it all. Enjoy a pleasant walk or cycle ride and stop at one of our country pubs. We have multiple award-winning eateries where you can sample local cuisine; with a number of dog-friendly venues, you're welcome to bring your four-legged friends.

Take home local meats and cheeses, sample fish and seafood brought fresh from the coast or satisfy your sweet tooth with something a bit more indulgent. Visit a vineyard or brewery for a tour and a taster of local wines, beers and ciders. With thriving farmer's markets in Cridton and Cullompton, farm shops dotted through the region, regular Streetfood events in Tiverton, and award-winning restaurants in Bampton, local produce is easy to find.
