

Learning Volunteer

Role Description

Our Learning Volunteers play a vital role in welcoming and inspiring thousands of children and young people, through both the delivery of our schools' programme and our family activities.

The priority of this role is that learning opportunities are stimulating and fun, and reflect the Museum's values of being welcoming and open to all.

TIVERTON MUSEUM

of Mid Devon Life

Tasks you could do as a learning volunteer	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Assist in delivering educational workshops to schools and other groups• Maintain and administer the School Loan Boxes• Lead or support our monthly Toddler Group sessions• Assist with holiday activity days and special event days• Prepare craft and workshop resources
Benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use existing skills, or learn new skills• Flexible volunteering opportunities• Satisfaction of delivering inspiring learning sessions• Meeting new people• 10% discount in the gift shop• Regular volunteer socials• A monthly newsletter
Skills required	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ability to engage with children and young people• Good communication skills and a friendly, approachable manner
Training provided	Related experience may be useful, but not necessary. We welcome potential volunteers to come and shadow a session or two to try it out to start with. Training is given 'on the job' and you will be supported by a supervisor and other members of the team. You will receive an induction to go through policies and procedures.
References	Please note that this role will require two references, and you will be asked to undertake an enhanced DBS check.

If you are interested in this role and would like to find out more, please email volunteer@tivertonmuseum.org.uk or phone 01884 256295