

Walks & Talks Volunteer

Role Description

The museum delivers an events programme of walks and talks both within the Museum and around the town of Tiverton. As an events volunteer you could be leading or supporting one of the events.

TIVERTON MUSEUM

of Mid Devon Life

Tasks you could do as an events volunteer	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Researching and preparing themed walks and/or talks on local history• Assisting to prepare for walk, eg checking distance and risk assessment• Either leading or supporting the walk around the town• Delivering talks (with PowerPoint) as part of our events programme, or to community groups
Benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use existing skills, or learn new skills• Keeping physically fit! If you lead one of the walking tours• Meeting new people• 10% discount in the gift shop• Regular volunteer socials• A monthly newsletter
Skills required	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A curiosity to discover information and share your findings• A good communicator, ability to present to a group• Enjoy meeting people• Physically fit enough to walk the tour (if delivering walks), or to take laptop and projector out to community groups (if delivering in talks)• Ability to carry out agreed tasks on your own
Training provided	Related experience may be useful, but not necessary. We welcome potential volunteers to come and shadow a session or two to try it out to start with. Training is given 'on the job' and you will be supported by a supervisor and other members of the team. You will receive an induction to go through policies and procedures.
References	Please note that this role will require two references.

If you are interested in this role and would like to find out more, please email volunteer@tivertonmuseum.org.uk or phone 01884 256295